Bout Time takes the Goldwood Stakes at Monmouth Park

EQUI-PHOTOS

It didn't take long for BOUT TIME to earn black-type, as she dominated in her stakes debut, the $108,000 Goldwood Stakes at Monmouth Park. Her easy 2 ¼-length victory came on the heels of a scintillating allowance win at Churchill last month and pushed her turf record to a stellar 4-3-1-0.

She is a "head" shy of owning an undefeated turf record. In five lifetime starts, her only off-the-board finish came in her career debut when the race was taken off the turf.

This 4-year-old daughter of leading third-crop sire Not This Time is a half-sister to three stakes horses, including multiple stakes winner Archidust ($517,582 in earnings).

Bout Time will be pointed toward the $200,000 Caress S.-G3 at Saratoga on July 23rd, a 5 ½-furlong turf sprint for older fillies and mares.

RECORD: 5-3-1-0 EARNINGS: $171,488

Picture Perfect Weekend in Kentucky

We were happy to be able to spend quality time with many of our partners on the last weekend of June.

Friday was packed from the beginning as we met on the rail during training hours at Keeneland. We witnessed several of our Belladonna trainees going through their routines, and then found our way to the barn to study a few of our maturing two-year-old fillies.

Lane's End welcomed our group and showed us several stallions, including Quality Road and his Freshman son, City of Light. We were also treated to see a few mares and foals on the vast property.

The quaint railroad town of Midway did not disappoint as a perfect spot to enjoy a patio lunch at Brown Barrel. This town is a must-stop on your next Kentucky visit.

The afternoon was spent at Spendthrift Farm with their general manager Ned Toffey (college classmate/team-mate of Paul Manganaro) and Ned's affable daughter Megan as our wonderful tour guide. We were up close with the most expensive stallion in North America, Into Mischief, and enjoyed a parade of other stallions that included Kentucky Derby-G1 winner Authentic.

But possibly the highlight of the Spendthrift tour came when our group got to love on the Champion mares Beholder and Monomoy Girl, who share a paddock.

Friday's evening was a splendid dinner at Frank & Dino's in the heart of Lexington. This fine Italian restaurant is another must-stop when traveling to central Kentucky.

A Day in the Bluegrass

Race Day Ready!

Saturday was Game Day: we had a pair of stakes runners competing just minutes apart at two different tracks. Our group traveled to Churchill Downs and enjoyed a full day of racing and camaraderie on a steamy, humid afternoon.

Bayerness felt the heat too and hooked a seriously tough field in her return to graded stakes; she gave a good effort and finished fifth. She was barely back to be unsaddled before Bout Time stepped up to capture the $108,000 Goldwood Stakes at Monmouth Park in New Jersey. The celebration was great amongst our group and we were thrilled to see some of the Belladonna partners present for the victory.

RECENT NEWS & NOTABLE DATES

BREEDERS' CUP WEEKEND IN LEXINGTON

We hope you can join us for the 2022 Breeders' Cup World Championship weekend, to be held at Keeneland November 4th and 5th. Our plan is to have a large gathering in the Trackside Chalets for both days of racing.

For a cost of $2,311 per person, each ticket would include a seat in the chalet at the top of the stretch, all food and beverages, plus general admission to the racetrack for Breeders' Cup days.

Keeneland is a quaint racecourse and has limited capacity, therefore we highly recommend purchasing your ticket(s) at your earliest convenience (our deadline is July 15th); fees are due immediately and unfortunately are non-refundable.
