BREEDERS' CUP 2022 SCHEDULE

UNBEATEN FLIGHTLINE TABBED 3-5 CLASSIC FAVORITE

LEXINGTON, KY -- With University of Kentucky men's basketball head coach John Calipari pulling the pills, unbeaten superstar Flightline (Tapit) drew post four for Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic to a round of applause during Monday's Rood & Riddle Post Position Draw held at the home of the Wildcats at Rupp Arena in downtown Lexington.

The 3-5 morning-line favorite will meet seven rivals in the $6-million centerpiece at Keeneland, including the talented Life Is Good (Into Mischief) (post two) and top 3-year-olds Epicenter (Not This Time) (post six), Taiba (Gun Runner) (post one) and Rich Strike (Keen Ice) (post eight).

"Good draw," trainer John Sadler said of the runaway GI Pacific Classic winner. We would've been happy with any draw. We think at 1 ¼ miles you have a good run into the turn to get your position. So, for him, it's just fine."

Race Ready in October

PROUVER PREVAILS BY A NOSE IN SECOND START

PROUVER (f, 2, Justify-Ready to Act {GSW, $249,362}, by More Than Ready), wearing the #13 saddlecloth after drawing in off the also-eligible list, overcame an awkward start and stayed wide into the stretch. The uniquely colored gray filly drifted even wider, hooked a stubborn rival at the sixteenth pole, and then gamely out-kicked that foe to win by a nose.

Record: 2-1-0-0 $21,030

COASTANA EARNS ADDITIONAL GRADED BLACK-TYPE

A month after Coastana earned a G2-placing in the prestigious Flower Bowl S. (G2) at Saratoga, she picked up a nice third over a yielding course in the $200,000 Waya S. (G3) at Belmont at the Big A meet on October 2nd. In what appears to be her final start for Belladonna, she was a gallant fourth with an inside trip in the October 23rd Dowager S. (G3) at Keeneland.

Record: 9-2-2-2 $248,513

Grateful for "the originals"

Thank You!

Belladonna Racing started with a vision and a dream. That vision and dream quickly turned into a reality in 2019 when a strong group of like-minded partners came together and Belladonna Racing was launched.

The original group of six fillies: Bayerness, Coastana, Akor, Veruca, Curlinesque, and Andiamo, will always be referred to as "the originals" and they took us on an exciting journey. Their success set the table for future Belladonna Racing groups.

As we enter the final chapter of Belladonna Racing I with the sale of graded stakes mares Bayerness and Coastana in the upcoming 2022 Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale, we express our sincere gratitude and appreciation to each of our partners and the original six equine athletes that were essential in making a dream a reality. Cherie, David, and Paul

BELLADONNA RACING WINTER PLANS!

For the first time since its inception, the Belladonna Racing Team will have horses in three locations this winter. One string will be at our headquarters in Kentucky, with the others at the Fairgrounds Racetrack in New Orleans and the Palm Meadows training facility just north of Gulfstream Park in Boynton Beach, Florida.

These strategic locations will allow us to develop our younger horses in favorable settings and will give our race-ready runners many options.

We welcome your visit anytime if you find yourself in any of these areas over the winter season.
